

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that defendant's Motion to Continue (#70) is GRANTED, this matter is continued to the next criminal term, and the Court finds the delay caused by such continuance shall be excluded in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv), as failure to grant such a continuance would deny counsel for the defendant the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. Further, the ends of justice served by granting such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Specifically, defendant and counsel have shown a need for additional time to review discovery and other materials in preparing for trial or other resolution of this matter.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), this matter is continued as to co-defendants Paul Andy Stiep, Manuel Mauro Chavez, Mark Raymond Oman, and Nicholas Richer and the time is excluded as a reasonable period of delay as such defendants are joined with a co-defendant whose case has been continued from the term and as to whom the time for trial has not run and no motion for severance has been granted.

This matter is continued to the July 2019 term, and the time is excluded. The time for filing pretrial motions is ENLARGED by 60 days.
